Yours R
Petitioner

Chikmagalur,

Dated 21st May 1918.

I have known Mr. G.Abdur Rahim, B.A.,LL.B., Advocate for a number of years-as a practitioner for the three years that I am here and as a personal friend for some years before that. In several important cases which he conducted before me, he acquitted himself creditably and I found that he was much above the average in all that he handled. As I have known him intimately for some time past, I can with confidence vouch for his integrity Character, intelligence and capacity. He is an Advocate of over six years standing and is well up in Law and Procedure. I am sure that, if he is given a chance, he will neither fall below the mark nor will he be behind many others that are already in the line either in Civil or Criminal work. He is one of the very few Law Graduates in the Backward Community and deserves a chance in the arrangements that are likely to be made in connection with the separation of the Executive and Judicial functions now under contemplation. I may add that he belongs to a very respectable family in these parts.

Signed. C.Abdul Ghani,

Abdur Rahim Ganjami joined this College in 1904 and took his B. A. in 1908, being placed in the 2nd Division.

His conduct and behaviour as a student were very good; and, so far as I know, his character is excellent.

He was a quiet student, steady in his work, and intelligent.

I think he can be recommended as a good candidate for a Government appointment.

Dated 15th May 1909.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the fact that Abdur Rahim Ganjami a graduate of this College always conducted himself to the satisfaction of those over him here. He was a student of gentlemanly manners and appearance and will I feel sure do us credit wherever he goes. His knowledge of law I must leave others to speak to but I feel sure that he will do his best in any post he secures and I hope that he will find some opening at no distant date.

(Sd.) W. A. J. ARCHBOLD.

Mr. Abdul Rahim B. A. of Mysore was one of my pupils when I was Professor of Law at the M. A. O. College, Aligarh. During that period I had ample opportunities of forming an estimate of his work and general character. I found him very deligent and painstaking and he applied himself to his work with zeal and energy. I have no doubt that the industrious habits, of which he gave such signal proof here in his College career, will, if continued, insure for him success in most departments of life.

With a little practical experience of the working of the Courts, he will do splendidly as Judicial Officer. In character he is a thorough gentleman

He was a State Scholar of Mysore.

His conduct was very satisfactory and, so far as I know, his character is very good.

He is a young man of some ability and of good manners.

I think he would make a good candidate for the Mysore State Service.

On many occasions I get quite discouraged on account of the behaviour of my people, who keep on rebelling, quarelling and intriguing against each other, and making false reports of each other to me. I have then to make enquiries to find out the truth, and this revokes more than half of my valuable time; so that as I try to step on the path of progress they keep on pulling me back. I get very weary, and sometimes think that their position is unchangeable, and their intrigues incurable, and that it is impossible to raise them to that standard which would make them equal to their neighbours in strength and character.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF MYSORE. VI.

E. CHINNASWAMI PILLAI.

"The gentleman a brief sketch of whose official life we intend presenting to our readers here was one of those great men who enjoyed in a great measure the appreciation and encouragement of noble, high class Englishmen."

"Erungundram Chinnaswami Pillai was born in Madras in 1816. Young Chinnaswami was educated in the College of Fort St. George—the father of the Modern Presidency College, and left the institution in the year 1833 with a certificate from the authorities of the college to the effect that he has a fair acquaintance with English and is an intelligent, quick and attentive lad.

Public service soon allured him into its ranks and he entered it with the qualifications above mentioned and a determination to rise high in it, if ability and honesty could at all back him up in the effort therefor. The first glimpse we get of him as an Official is as a Head Writer of the Madras Stationery Office, 1833 and we need not follow him into all the windings of a Clerk's career in those days."

"On June 15th 1838, Mr. John Sulliven introduced him to Mr. Onslow, the Collector of Trichinopoly, as a remarkably intelligent, well educated man, and whom you would find very useful from his excellent knowledge of both English and Tamil."

"Mr. Onslow took him on and in a very short time came to see for himself what an acquisition Mr. Pillai was to him and the service in general. Chinnaswami's personality asserted itself; corruption or meanness of any kind excited his strongest loathing and disgust and he never took the trouble of concealing his feelings when in the midst of his debased co-workers. This gave rise to envy and enmity on the latter's part and we find Mr. Onslow writing to Mr. Pillai on 13th January 1840, 'I take this opportunity of mentioning that you need not suffer any alarm at the enmity which, of course, your upright conduct has generated in the minds of those who have been guilty of improper actions'. 'I will take care that none of them injure you."

After a lengthy explanation of the character of Mr. Chinnaswami Pillai, Mr. Onslow thus ends his letter to the Board of Revenue "Under this explanation, I trust the Board will see no objection to my continuing Chinnaswami Pillai in office—a determination of a contrary nature would I may be permitted to say tend very much to embarass and be a source of sincere regret to me."

In a letter dated 1st May 1852, Mr. H. J. Nicholls, the Accountant General thus speaks of him, "He is a very valuable public servant, most intelligent, zealous and especially attentive in his application to business. Of his integrity I have not the least cause to doubt. He is proceeding to Bangalore with the hope of advancing his prospects in life and although I should be glad to hear of his success, I must acknowledge that he will be a great loss in my office."

It was the days of British Commission in Mysore and General Sir Mark Cubbon was the Chief Commissioner. With an intutive eye he saw what an acquisition Mr. Chinnaswami would be to the service, and forthwith appointed him as the Head of the Dariaft Cutcherry on a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem. The position was no sinecure. Ordinarily it meant the hearing of countless appeals from the petty tyranny of subordinate officialdom and doing justice between man and man. Added to this Mr. Chinnaswami a few months after he took charge was asked to conduct an enquiry into a case which seems to have been a grave and complicated one. Mr. Pillai emerged from the ordeal with flying colours. Mr. T. Clarke the Superintendent of the Ashtagram Division writing of it to the Commissioner says "In conclusion I beg to bring to the Commissioner's notice the zeal, ability and unwearied industry exhibited by Chinnaswami Pillai during his tedious enquiry." On this the Commissioner remarks thus "The Commissioner requests that you will inform Chinnaswami Pillai that he has noted with great satisfaction the praise you have bestowed upon his labours."

As days passed, such golden opinions did Mr. Pillai win from his superiors that in 1854 (i. e. two years after he entered the service) we find Mr. Clarke recommending an increase of pay to Mr. Pillai in these words :—

"For Chinnaswami Pillai I respectfully crave a like indulgence on account of the peculiar nature of his duties which are of the most difficult and tedious description. Employed solely in the detection of abuses and bringing offenders to justice, he has invariably behaved in the most independent manner, and I have pleasure in recording the fact that I have never received a complaint reflecting upon his integrity."

But to proceed the increase recommended was instantly sanctioned and shortly thereafter Mr. Pillai was made the Head Sheristadar of the Ashtagram Division. * A Head Sheristadar of those days corresponded to, nay topped, the Deputy Commissioners of to-day. †It was the highest appointment thrown open to the natives in the days of the commission. None but the most devoted, most active and most truthful of the official world was raised to the position and to Chinnasawmy it came unsought.

But while man was so kind and propitious, the fates were not. Mr. Pillai succumbed at the early age of 45 to an attack of malaria and breathed his last in June 1861. Thus closed prematurely the career of one of whom we Indians might well be proud, it is true as the poet says

"Kind hearts are better than Coronets and simple truth than Norman blood."

To the Hon'ble Members of Council with Compts

Sir,

I most humbly beg to submit that I am a Law-Graduat of the Madras University and belong to the Lingayat Community, a Backward class of the State. I joined Government Service nearly 11½ years ago. I have been in the Police Department for the last 10 years as a Police Inspector, my present pay being Rs. 70/- a month. My claims for a pay of Rs. 100/- are now under the kind consideration of the Inspector General of Police.

I beg to state that up to about six months ago, that is, before the introduction of the new Police Organization Scheme, it was usual for the Law-Graduates who were getting Rs 60/- or 70/- a month as Police Inspectors, to be drafted at once into the Revenue Department as Amildars on Rs. 150/- a month. I humbly beg to state that I entered the Police Department with this hope. But when I was expecting to be made an Amildar, new rules came in, barring Police Inspectors from entering into the Revenue Department. In fact after the introduction of these new rules, the prospects of the Law-Graduate-Police Inspectors, instead of being improved, became seriously jeopardised., for under these rules they cannot go out either as Amildars or as special Magistrates or as Munsiffs; nor &&&&&&&&& can they rise high in their own Department as quickly as their conteporaries in the Revenue and Judicial Departments; because in the Police department, the posts of high salary of over and above Rs. 100/- a month are only 13 in number and these new posts are mostly held at present by seniors whose chances of being made Police Superintendents are very few, as the Officers of other Departments are not precluded from holding them. As a result of these new rules, a revenue Clerk, not even a Graduate Graduate, who gets only Rs. 50/- or 60/- a month, can now aspire to the place of an Amildar on Rs. 150/- a month. But unfortunately a Police Inspector of Rs. 70/- or 80/- grade, although a Law-Graduate cannot be promoted at once to the grade of Rs. 150/- a month; For these Law-GraduatePolice Inspectors whose line of promotions and progress had originally been quite different from that of the unqualified Inspectors are now put together on and the same level and are thus compelled to await their chances with them.

I most humbly beg to submit that although I am a Law-Graduate belonging to a Backward community, yet I have not the fortune of being the recepient at any time of any special encouragement in the course of my official career up to now; and to my ~~great~~ great misfortune I have been rotting in the Police Department , although my contemporaries and even my juniors in the Revenue and Judicial Departments, have already been appointed either as Munsiffs or as Amildars . Hence I most humbly pray that you will be most graciously pleased to appoint me as a special case tto the post of a special Magistrate on RS. 150/- a month under the seperation scheme of Judicial and Executive Functions, for which post I believe myself to be fully competent and hope to give complete satisfaction to my superiors, as I have hitherto done during my long service in the Police Department.

Bangalore.

Sir,

After 7 years of successful practice as an advocate of the Chief Court, I was selected for the post of a Munsiff in 1902, which I have held for 16 years. During this period, I have exercised satisfactorily Magisterial functions and acted as Registrar of the Chief Court for three months. I was placed in charge of the heaviest courts where I have done hard and conscientious work which has met with the approval of my --- superiors. From the commencement of my service till now my Judicial work and my management of the office have both been uniformly appreciated.

In filling up the vacancy of the office of Registrar of the Chief Court and also in appointing First Class Magistrates, I was under the hope that my claims would not be --- overlooked. But to my surprise, two of my juniors were appointed in supersession of my superior claims thus lowering my positions and prestige. I have also suffered pecuniarily on this account.

In consideration of my long service and good work I pray that the Government will be pleased to order that my --- seniority will not be affected by the recent appointments of my juniors. I further pray that I may be given the salary and status of a Sub-Judge, from the date on which the appointments above referred to were conferred on my juniors, either in the shape of pay or personal allowance.

I beg to remain, Sir,

Your most obedient and humble servant,
Sd., T.Venkoba Rao,
1st Munsiff, Seringpatam.

Forwarded for favourable consideration and orders.

The application has my strong support. The applicant has served under me both in the Sub Court and in the District Court. I am aware of almost all officials getting a salary of Rs 50 + above employed in the judicial department in the State, graduates Law graduates + others. Among them I would place the applicant - in the front rank. He is only 37 or 38 years old. He combines within him high character, capacity + intelligence above the average - He deserves a much higher place than that of an ordinary clerk on 50 in the 50-2-60 grade. I am confident that he would be a most suitable selection for a second class magistrate if it should please the Govt. to bestow upon him that post.

Sir,

I am now Head clerk in the District and Sessions court, Bangalore Division and have put in nearly 15 years' service in the Judicial Department. I have passed the F.A. Examination and the following Local service Examinations:- Revenue Higher, Civil parts I and II, Criminal Higher, Registration and -- Accounts Higher.

I believe my name was included in the list of candidates eligible for Amildari and Assistant commissioners sent up by the Honorable the Chief Court in July 1917. While recommending my name for an amildari Mr: Justice -- Plumer, -- the then District and Sessions Judge, was pleased to remark that my capacity and conduct were both good and that I should do very well for executive work. Now that the officials of the Judicial Department are -- debarred from recruitment as Amildars, there is no chance for them to get promotions -- outside their own Department. I therefore beg to apply for one of the Special ---- magistrates' posts which come into existence next July under the separation scheme. I have preferential claims for the post over officials of the other Departments as I have had better training in one of the heaviest sessions courts in the state.

As regards my capacity and character I submit that I have been discharging my - duties to the satisfaction of my official superiors and feel confident that the Judges under whom I have served will support my - claims for the post I seek.

I belong to a respectable family being the cousin of Rao Bahadur A.M.Sundramoorthi mudaliar and son-in-law of V.S.Valoo muda--liar, landlord and Kayam güttedar who pays a large assessment of Rs.1000/- to the Mysore Government.

I pray that the Government may be -- pleased to consider my application favour--ably and appoint me a Magistrate. I respect--fully beg to assure that nothing will be wanting on my part to justify the selection if made by the Government.

All these names have been entered in the Register. This may now be recorded

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Through the Honourable the Chief Court of Mysore.

Sir,

In connection with the appointments of Special First class Magistrates to be made for two more Districts in the next official year, I beg to request that the following representation of mine may be placed before the Government of His Highness the Maharaja for their kind and sympathetic consideration:-

I have been serving as a Munsiff for over 13 years, having been appointed from the bar where I had practiced for 8 years. My character and capacity may be judged by the qualification reports regarding my work which the Chief Court have forwarded to Government from time to time. I shall only refer here to three additional facts in my favour.

1. In connection with the defalcation of public money and falsification of accounts by the cash nazir of the 2nd Munsiff Court, Mysore, the Government have recorded in J 37744-6,211-15-2 dated 20-3-16 " and notes, with satisfaction, the appreciation by the Chief Court of the manner in which the enquiry was conducted by the Munsiff Mr. Venkatakrishniya".

2. In the latest inspection report of this Court 717-18 C 60 dated 6-8-18 Justice R.B.Plumer has remarked as follows

" The judicial work by Mr. S.Venkatakrishniya both in quantity of disposal and quality of character continues to be very good. His office control is excellent and his close supervision is manifest in every branch of the office. His work is exceedingly heavy and it is only his quick ability and methodical strenuousness that has enabled him to cope with it".

3. If it is pardonable, I beg to state, that I alone among the Munsiffs, have been invested with higher Small Cause powers up to Rs 100/-.

The members of the service to which I have the honour to belong were gratified by the appointments recently made to fill the offices of Special First class Magistrates under the scheme of seperation of judicial and executive functions. I respectfully venture to submit that one of the main objects of that scheme is to entrust all judicial work to officers specially trained in the appreciation of evidence and possessing a detailed knowledge of law and procedure. I am encouraged to hope that in making further recruitments to the above mentioned offices, the special qualifications of the members of the judicial service for such posts will continue to receive adequat recognition.

It is well known that the oppertunities for advancement open to Munsiffs as a class, are somewhat limited compared with the chances in the different departments of the State available to the members of the general service. Besides, the Munsiffs are under a further disability in that they have to enter service at a comparatively late age and, not infrequently, cannot put in even the full period of qualifying service for pension.

I respectfully submit that in consideration of both the general and special grounds set forth above, the benign Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore may be graciously pleased to favourably consider my claim to one of the Special First class Magistrates to be newly appointed in the next official year and for this act of kindness, I shall ever feel grateful.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

your most obedient servant.

I respectfully and humbly beg to state

1. That I am the second son of Mr.T.Abdul Karim, Retired Deputy Conservator of Forests, who served the Mysore Government honestly and zealously for more than 31½ years.

2. That I passed the B.A. and LL.B. Examinations of the Allahabad University from the M.A.O. College, Aligarh, where I studied for over nine - years at my own cost and took a prominent part in all the out-door games such as Hockey, Cricket, - Foot-ball &c., and earned the esteem of the Principal and Professors of the College who trusted me - speaking highly of my moral character and conduct.

3. That I have also passed the Revenue Higher and the Registration Examinations of the Mysore Local Service Examinations.

4. That I have practised at the Bar for over two years under the then Government Advocate Mr.Justice C.S.Doraswamy Iyer, B.A., B.L.

5. That I now respectfully pray for a - nomination to the appointment of a Second Class Special Magistrate for which I possess the necessary qualifications and I base my claims on the following grounds:-

(a) my educational qualifications, character and conduct,

(b) my being a member of the backward Mahomedan Community which is insufficiently represented in the Mysore Judicial Service,

(c) my social position derived from my father who holds a leading position in the - Mahomedan Society in the Mysore Province, and the honest, hard and long services of my father,

(d) my being one of the very few double graduates in my Community, and

To

The Secretary

to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, B A N G A L O R E.

Most Respected Sir,

I am given to understand that the Government is considering the question of appointing from among the members of the Bar. Special Magistrates for the Districts of Mysore and Kadur, where the extension of the "Separation" scheme is to take effect from 1st October next, as announced in the Mysore Gazette recently.

I was enrolled as a practitioner in or about August 1912 and began practice at Bangalore, and then removed to the Kolar Gold Fields where I commanded a good practice both on the Civil and Criminal sides for 3 years. I then returned to Bangalore, where I have been since practising, to secure Chief Court practice. I have been appearing in the Chief Court and I believe the Honourable Judges have had an opportunity to judge of my capacity as a Lawyer. I may also here state that I am practising in the courts of the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

I had once applied to the Chief Court for an appointment

appointment of a Munsiff's place and then offered myself as a candidate for the Munsiff's examination held last year, but unfortunately however owing to causes beyond my control I was prevented from sitting for the examination.

I am a graduate in Law of the Madras University and have also passed the Mysore Local Service Examinations in Revenue and Registration (Higher).

I belong to an old respectable family and my fore-fathers have rendered meritorious services to the State both in the pre-Rendition days and subsequently also; my uncle Mr. B.S. Krishnaswamiengar retired from service as District and Sessions Judge a couple of years ago and after the untimely death of his son Mr. B.K. Srinivasa Iyengar in America, there is no representative of my family in the higher grade service of Government.

It has been my ambition, all along, to serve His Highness the Maharaja and as an opportunity is now offered for members, of the legal profession to which I belong, to be employed as Special Magistrates or Munsiffs. I respectfully beg to offer myself as a candidate for the same. Nothing, I may assure you, will be found wanting in me to give the Government entire satisfaction in the discharge of my duties if I should be so employed.

I have enclosed herein an endorsement in reply to my application to the Chief Court for an appointment as Special Magistrate or Munsiff. I request you, most respected Sir, to recommend me to His Highness the Maharaja and His Government for being appointed as a Special Second Class Magistrate or Munsiff, next October, for which act of kindness I shall ever pray.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith, for favourable consideration an application from Mr. A. Ramachandra Naidoo, Sheristadar of this Court, praying for the appointment of a Second Class Magistrate.

I have the honor to be

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

B A N G A L O R E.

S i r,

I humbly beg to request that you will be so good as to place this application of mine before the Government for their gracious consideration and favour of orders.

I was an acting Amildar-Magistrate at Chicknaikanhally for a year and two months in 1917 and 1918. During that period I had to decide about 122 cases out of which only in 2 cases my Judgment was reversed on Appeal.

I am at present the permanent Head Clerk of the Chief Court of Mysore on Rs.138/- per mensem in 120-6-150 grade, doing duty as Sheristedar of the District Court, Bangalore Division.

It may not be out of place for me to mention that I am the son of late Mr. A. Rajagopal Naidu, Munsiff (1st grade) of Shimoga, and that I belong to a backward community.

I most respectfully beg to request that the Government may be graciously pleased to consider my claims to one of the appointments of Second Class Magistrates which they intend to make in October next. I further beg to assure that if the Government be kind enough to bestow one on me, I shall do my best to give them entire satisfaction in the discharge of my duties as such.

I beg to remain,

S i r,

Your most obedient Servant,

It was not so remarkable either for great height or quantity of water as for the beautiful accompaniments which made the spot interesting. After a broken cataract of about twenty feet, the stream was received in a large natural basin filled to the brim with water, which, when the bubbles of the fall subsided, was so exquisitely clear that, although it was of great depth, the eye could discern each pebble at the bottom. Collecting round this reservoir, the brook formed its way as if over a broken path of the ledge, and formed a second fall, which seemed to seek the very abyss; then, wheeling out beneath from among the smooth dark rocks which it had polished for ages, it wandered murmuring down the glen, forming the stream up which the hero had just ascended. The borders of this romantic reservoir corresponded in beauty; but it was beauty of a stern and commanding cast, as if in the act of expanding into grandeur. Mossy banks of turf were broken and interrupted by huge fragments of rock, and decorated with trees and shrubs, some of which has been planted under the direction of Flora, but so cautiously that they added to the grace without diminishing the romantic wildness of the scene.

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

S i r,

In continuation of this office No. 6310/452 dated - 12-3-1919, I have the honor to forward for favourable consideratio of Government another application from Mr. M.P.Bhogiah, Prosecuting Inspector of this Department.

His services. Application is in the nature of appt of Magistrate in the Conf Rev

The Inspector in his application has said that the rules now in force in regard to the appointment of Special Magistrates do not explicitly refer to the claim of officers of the Police Department for such appointment. The Law Graduates of the Police Department especially those who have been doing the duties of Prosecution gain much experience of Law and Procedure by constant touch with the Bar and Magistracy and are as fit to hold the appointments of Magistrate as other officers and members of the bar I would therefore strongly urge that the claims of the Inspectors may also be favourably viewed by Government in making the appointments of Special Magistrate.

I have the honor to be,

To

The Judicial Superintendent of Police,

Bangalore

Sir,

With reference to my memorial to the Government, which I submitted about five months back from Chikmagalur, praying for a post of a Second class Magistrate under the Separation Scheme, I have been given to understand that the rule on the subject do not permit of Police Inspectors, although Law-Graduate, being appointed to these posts of Special Magistrates. I most humbly beg to submit, that I am a Law-Graduate of the Madras University; I have already put in nearly 12 years' service. I am now getting a pay of Rs 100 a month. Had it not been for the introduction of the Police Re-organisation scheme, I should have been by this time getting a pay of Rs at least Rs 150 a month, as many of my juniors who had not the misfortune to join the Police Department have now become at least either Amildars or Munsiffs on Rs 150 a month. I most humbly beg to submit that as present Inspector, I have been conducting cases in the Criminal Courts to the entire satisfaction of my Superior officers. In fact, my work lies chiefly in the Law-Courts only. Hence I may safely say that I have received a very good training in the judicial work. Since the magisterial work and the police work are closely allied to each other, I beg to submit that a Law-Graduate presently Inspector of police is as competent as anybody else. Under these circumstances it will be a great hardship, I respectfully beg to state, if I should be declared ineligible, on the mere plea that I am a Police Inspector; for the defect does not at all lie in me as I am duly qualified to hold the post of a 2nd class magistrate. Hence I earnestly pray that a reference may be kindly made to the Government either for liberally interpreting the rules or for altering them so as to throw these magisterial posts open, even to the Law-graduate police Inspectors, in view of the fact that they are not expressly excluded from being appointed to these posts. I most respectfully beg to state that although I am a Law-graduate, belonging to a Backward community, I have not received up to now any special encouragement at the hands of the Government. Hence I most humbly pray that my present memorial for a magistrate place may be most favourably considered.

I beg to remain
Sir
Your most obedient Servant.

District presiding Inspector of police.
15. 8. 19.

Submitted to the Deputy Commissioner Bengaluru District for favourable consideration

The representation made by Prof. Kapse Mr Bhosale seems to be reasonable. It would be a great hardship if Law graduates are debarred from being selected to the post of Special Magistrates simply because they are Police Constables. If approved, a reference will be made to the Superintendent of Police & move the Government in this matter.

The humble memorial of V.Kandaswamy Pillay, B.A., B.L., aged about 25 years, Karnikar Caste, First Grade Pleader, 425 Avenue Road, Bangalore City.

Most Respectfully sheweth:

That your Highness's humble memorialist's relations held several offices of trust and responsibility in the Mysore State from the year 1852.

That the memorialist's great-grand-father E.Chinnaswamy Pillay, held one of the highest and most responsible offices in the early days of the late Mysore Commission at the time of his death in June 1861, namely, that of Head Sheristadar of the Astagram Division. That the memorialist's grand-uncles, E.C.Shanmugavelu Pillay and E.C.Sivagnanam Pillay, his grandfather E.C.Sachedanandu Pillay, and uncle P.A.Sivaprakasam Pillay, retired from the servic of the Mysore Government as Senior Assistant Commissioner, First Grade Munsiff, Second Grade Munsiff and First Grade Munsiff respectively.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF MYSORE VI.

E. CHINNASWAMI PILLAI.

"The gentleman a brief sketch of whose official life we intend presenting to our readers here was one of those great men who enjoyed in a great measure the appreciation and encouragement of noble, high class Englishmen."

"Erungundram Chinnaswami Pillai was born in Madras in 1816. Young Chinnaswami was educated in the College of Fort St. George—the father of the Modern Presidency College, and left the institution in the year 1833 with a certificate from the authorities of the college to the effect that he has a fair acquaintance with English and is an intelligent, quick and attentive lad.

Public service soon allured him into its ranks and he entered it with the qualifications above mentioned and a determination to rise high in it, if ability and honesty could at all back him up in the effort therefor. The first glimpse we get of him as an Official is as a Head Writer of the Madras Stationery Office, 1833 and we need not follow him into all the windings of a Clerk's career in those days."

"On June 15th 1838, Mr. John Sulliven introduced him to Mr. Onslow, the Collector of Trichinopoly, as a remarkably intelligent, well educated man, and whom you would find very useful from his excellent knowledge of both English and Tamil."

"Mr. Onslow took him on and in a very short time came to see for himself what an acquisition Mr. Pillai was to him and the service in general. Chinnaswami's personality asserted itself; corruption or meanness of any kind excited his strongest loathing and disgust and he never took the trouble of concealing his feelings when in the midst of his debased co-workers. This gave rise to envy and enmity on the latter's part and we find Mr. Onslow writing to Mr. Pillai on 13th January 1840, 'I take this opportunity of mentioning that you need not suffer any alarm at the enmity which, of course, your upright conduct has generated in the minds of those who have been guilty of improper actions'. I will take care that none of them injure you."

After a lengthy explanation of the character of Mr. Chinnaswami Pillai, Mr. Onslow thus ends his letter to the Board of Revenue "Under this explanation, I trust the Board will see no objection to my continuing Chinnaswami Pillai in office—a determination of a contrary nature would I may be permitted to say tend very much to embarass and be a source of sincere regret to me."

In a letter dated 1st May 1852, Mr. H. J. Nicholls, the Accountant General thus speaks of him, "He is a very valuable public servant, most intelligent, zealous and especially attentive in his application to business. Of his integrity I have not the least cause to doubt. He is proceeding to Bangalore with the hope of advancing his prospects in life and although I should be glad to hear of his success, I must acknowledge that he will be a great loss in my office."

It was the days of British Commission in Mysore and General Sir Mark Cubbon was the Chief Commissioner. With an intutive eye he saw what an acquisition Mr. Chinnaswami would be to the service, and forthwith appointed him as the Head of the Dariaft Cutcherry on a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem. The position was no sinecure. Ordinarily it meant the hearing of countless appeals from the petty tyranny of subordinate officialdom and doing justice between man and man. Added to this Mr. Chinnaswami a few months after he took charge was asked to conduct an enquiry into a case which seems to have been a grave and complicated one. Mr. Pillai emerged from the ordeal with flying colours. Mr. T. Clarke the Superintendent of the Ashtagram Division writing of it to the Commissioner says "In conclusion I beg to bring to the Commissioner's notice the zeal, ability and unwearied industry exhibited by Chinnaswami Pillai during his tedious enquiry." On this the Commissioner remarks thus "The Commissioner requests that you will inform Chinnaswami Pillai that he has noted with great satisfaction the praise you have bestowed upon his labours."

As days passed, such golden opinions did Mr. Pillai win from his superiors that in 1854 (i. e. two years after he entered the service) we find Mr. Clarke recommending an increase of pay to Mr. Pillai in these words :—

"For Chinnaswami Pillai I respectfully crave a like indulgence on account of the peculiar nature of his duties which are of the most difficult and tedious description. Employed solely in the detection of abuses and bringing offenders to justice, he has invariably behaved in the most independent manner, and I have pleasure in recording the fact that I have never received a complaint reflecting upon his integrity."

But to proceed the increase recommended was instantly sanctioned and shortly thereafter Mr. Pillai was made the Head Sheristadar of the Ashtagram Division. * A Head Sheristadar of those days corresponded to, nay topped, the Deputy Commissioners of to-day. †It was the highest appointment thrown open to the natives in the days of the commission. None but the most devoted, most active and most truthful of the official world was raised to the position and to Chinnasawmy it came unsought.

But while man was so kind and propitious, the fates were not. Mr. Pillai succumbed at the early age of 45 to an attack of malaria and breathed his last in June 1861. Thus closed prematurely the career of one of whom we Indians might well be proud, it is true as the poet says

"Kind hearts are better than Coronets and simple truth than Norman blood."

Before he left this world Mr. Pillai had immense satisfaction of knowing of the decision of the Home Government to permit His Highness the late Sri Krishnarajendra Wodayar Bahadur to adopt a son . . . .

* "Seventy or eighty years ago, it was a position of great power, great responsibility and great temptations." Mr. J. Bedford, I. C. S., Collector of Salem.

† They were in fact Dewans to the Commissioners in Mysore.

Subsequent to my said application addressed to Government I have, on 3-11-1919, presented an application to the Chief Court praying that I may be given either a Munsiff's or a Second Class Magistrate's post. The originals of the testimonials have been submitted to the Chief Court.

I also learn that Mr. T. I am the next successful candidate eligible for appointment.

I, therefore, pray that Government may be pleased to view my case with favour at an early opportunity and that I may be given either a Munsiff's or a Second Class Magistrate's Post whenever the occasion arises for either of these two appointments. 1st. next 1st.

He bears an excellent character and I have no doubt whatever that he will, in due course of time, will be one of the leaders of the bar with great distinction; and that if he be taken into Government Service, he will prove a highly efficient Officer in any situation.
